The Man's Store,
1005-7 Pennsylvania Ave., N. W.
Washington, D. C.

My dear Sir:

Now that the work of uniforming Camp 171, United Confederate Veterans has been completed, I feel that I would be sadly lacking in the performance of a plain duty, if I failed to express my appreciation of the admirable manner in which you have met every requirement of our contract. The suits look and fit well, and the hat is especially fine, being unanimously voted, "the best ever", of any that have come under our observation.

Your affability and unfailing courtesy have made trading with you a delight, while the readiness with which you have remedied any seeming defect, demonstrates the fact that your motto, "Money's worth, or Money back", is in truth the basic principle of your establishment.

With best wishes,

Most faithfully yours,

Chairman, Committee on Uniforms,
Camp 171, U. C. V.

For the benefit of those who have not ordered U. C. V. uniforms in advance, we have stocked about 50
coats and pants, etc.—Ready for delivery!

Come in at once—we'll be glad to serve you.

Money's Worth or Money Back.

WHITE HOUSE 'PICKETS' CAUSE SUFFRAGIST SPLIT

Head of National Woman's Party De- nounces Militant Tactics.

A split in the ranks of the suffragists, brewing for weeks, because of the continued presence of "pickets" of the National Woman's Party at the White House, has been brought to a head by the revelations of anti-registration plots by the Department of Justice and resulted in an open declaration by the National American Woman Suffrage Association that the "picketing" is unpatriotic and inimical to the interests of the suffrage cause.

Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, president of the national association, announced today that her organization, with a membership of 2,000,000 women, does not countenance the picketing and feels keenly the adverse criticism leveled at suffragists in general because of the continued presence of the banner-carriers at the gates of the White House.

"We feel most keenly the handicap and injustice to the suffrage cause when suffragists as a whole are blamed for the action of a small group belonging to an organization which is no part of ours and which is in no real sense representative of the suffrage movement in the United States," declared Mrs. Catt.

TO UNVEIL PORTRAITS OF FORMER OFFICERS

The Washington Chapter of the American Institute of Banking has prepared an elaborate program of exercises in connection with the ceremonies which will mark the unveiling of the portraits of former presidents of the chapter at 8:15 o'clock tonight at its hall, 1215 F street northwest.

Ross E. Polock, chairman of the house committee, is in charge of arrangements. John Poole, of the Federal National Bank and one of the former presidents of the chapter, will preside. Roy L. Meunheuser is president of the Washington Chapter. The program will include special music and the unveiling of something like fifteen pictures of former heads of the chapter. Former presiding officers, as well as the various members of the chapter, have been invited to attend. The regular program will be followed by a supper and informal smoker.

Felix Frankfurter Named War Secretary's Assistant

Felix Frankfurter, a member of the faculty of Harvard University, was named by Secretary Baker yesterday as a "confidential assistant to the Secretary of War." Frankfurter formerly was solicitor of the Bureau of Insular Affairs of the War Department. He is the third "confidential assistant" appointed by Secretary Baker. The others are Walter Lippman, editor of a weekly magazine, and Dean Keppel, of Columbia University.

SUMMER DENTAL CLINIC IS OBJECT OF PARTY

In order to procure the services of two competent dentists to give free treatment to the thousands of Washington school children during the summer months a benefit bridge and 500 party will be held at the Powhatan Hotel on Saturday evening. The party will be held under the auspices of the Mothers' Congress and Parent-Teachers' Association of Washington.

In this connection, it is pointed out that official reports show that 90 per cent of the school children of the city have defective teeth which, in the majority of cases, could be cured by expert dental treatment.

Mrs. Giles Scott Rafter and Mrs. A. B. Gargies are the committee in charge.

His parents, who are honored inhabitants at the Zoo, are delighted. Mrs. Hippo, who hails from British East Africa, is only 8 years old. Mr. Hippo is a native of the Congo.

Mrs. Hippo is doing nicely, and is expected to bring out her baby boy from his cradle in a few days.

Millions of Americans Ask War Prohibition

WHAT WE ASK.

CONSIDERATION
FOR LIQUOR MEN.

WHAT WE OPPOSE.

EX-PRESIDENT
ROOSEVELT, Chicago, April 28:

"The world is facing a
shortage of food.

Therefore let us use
all the grain we have
for food and not for intoxicants. Now
that the war is on,
let us forbid any grain
or corn being used
in the manufacture of intoxicating liquors."

WILLIAM J.
BRYAN:

"I am in hearty sympathy with the effort
to conserve the food supply by not allowing the bread supply to be shortened in order to lengthen the supply of alcohol. It is not wise to starve the people in order to make them drunk."

OPPOSE?

We ask Congress to CONSERVE THE NATION'S FOOD AND MAN-POWER AND RESOURCES by forbidding for the period of the war the manufacture of all intoxicating liquors, also sale, transportation in interstate commerce, and importation with permission for redistribution of liquors on hand for munitions and other nonbeverage uses—tax to be waived in such cases.

We oppose any increase of the tax on liquors, which is AN ENTRENCHMENT of a traffic declared in the major part of the nation to be a crime. We also oppose spurring beer and wine while suppressing whiskey—an exploded century-old fallacy—and forbidding future manufacture of liquors without prohibiting sale of three years' stock of whiskey on hand is equally objectionable.

What Millions of Americans Ask Is Impartial Prohibition of All In- toxicating Liquors—Nothing Less Will Be Fair or Effective.

WHO ASK FOR WAR PROHIBITION?

The nation's foremost political and intellectual and moral leaders.

1. The House Democratic caucus declared for it, but were kept from action as a party by the near-treason of a minority threatening to defeat the war program.

2. Progressive leaders incorporated in their war creed, conservation of food products.

3. Republicans are equally represented in active support of war prohibition in Senate and House debates and votes.

4. A thousand intellectual leaders, university presidents, economists, physicians, editors, marshaled by the Committee of Sixty, Prof. Irving Fisher, president.

5. Hundreds of commercial leaders, our great captains of industry.

6. The Federal Council of Churches, with a constituency of 18 million members, more than one-third voters.

7. The National Legislative Conference, in which practically all American temperance experts and their societies are represented.

Opposition has come almost entirely from men in the liquor business. The drinkers have made no visible opposition to the patriotic sacrifice required by the alarming food shortage of the world.

Let 'Em Starve, Uncle!

We ask Washington people, brought here by Government duties from every Congressional District in the land, to send this article immediately to their home towns to suggest swift expression of public sentiment to Congress on the chief war question at home and abroad,

SHALL WE HAVE BREAD OR BOOZE?

Respectfully submitted by
NATIONAL WOMAN'S CHRISTIAN TEMPERANCE UNION, METHODIST BOARD OF TEMPERANCE, PROHIBITION AND PUBLIC MORALS, INTERNATIONAL REFORM BUREAU.
